Poem

A Life Well Lived read by Gail

A life well lived is a precious gift
Of hope and strength and grace
From someone who has made our world
A brighter, better place.
It's filled with memories sweet and sad
With smiles and sometimes tears,
With friendships formed and good times shared
And fun and laughter through the years.
A life well lived is a legacy
Of joy and pride and pleasure
A living, lasting memory
Our grateful hearts will treasure
It broke our hearts to lose you
But you didn't go alone
For part of us went with you
The day you were called home.
You left us with rich memories
Your love is still our guide
And though we cannot see you
You are always at our side.
Our family chain is broken
And nothing seems the same
But when we are called, one by one
The chain will link again

I Love you Because by Jim Reeves

I love you because you understand, dear
Every single thing I try to do
You're always there to lend a helping hand, dear
I love you most of all because you're you.

No matter what the world may say about me
I know your love will always see me through
I love you for the way you never doubt me
But most of all I love you 'cause you're you.

I love you because my heart is lighter
Every time I'm walking by your side
I love you because the future's brighter
The door to happiness, you open wide.

No matter what the world may say about me
I know your love will always see me through
I love you for a hundred thousand reasons
But most of all I love you 'cause you're you...

Poem for Dad

Read by Lindsay

He never looked for praise
He was never one to boast
He went on quietly working
For those he loved the most
His dreams were seldom spoken
His wants were very few
He lived his life as he wanted
And was content and happy too.
He was there, a firm foundation
Through all our storms of life
A sturdy hand to hold on to
In times of stress and strife
A true friend we could turn to
When times were good or bad
He was our greatest blessing
The man that we called dad
