A Guide to Funeral Costs and Expenses

Effective from May 2026

Our Traditional Service

What this includes

- We will make arrangements to collect the deceased and bring them into our care from within a 20 mile radius of our office during normal office hours of Monday - Friday, 9am-5pm. Should we be required to attend outside of these hours, there will be an out of hours fee applied. See 'Additional Services' for more information
- We will prepare and take care of the deceased until the day of the funeral.
- Where possible, family and friends will be offered the opportunity to spend time with the deceased in our Chapel of Rest during office hours.
- We will make all of the arrangements for the funeral, liaise with local clergy, celebrants, cemeteries, crematoria, caterers and florists as required and also provide the funeral director, chauffeurs and a team of four bearers for the funeral service.
- We will give guidance to relatives or executors on the registration of the death and other matters relevant to the funeral.
- We will provide a hearse that has the flexibility to either proceed directly to the funeral venue or depart from a nearby address in advance of the service.
- We will receive flowers for the funeral and process charitable donations in memory of the deceased, both via our website and more traditional methods.
- Home visits are available if required.
- A Balmoral or Sandringham coffin.

Our Unattended Direct Cremation Service

What this includes

- We will make arrangements to collect the deceased and bring them into our care from within a 20 mile radius of our office during normal office hours of Monday - Friday, 9am-5pm. Should we be required to attend outside of these hours, there will be an out of hours fee applied.
- The date of the cremation will be decided upon at our discretion at a crematorium of our choosing. On the day of the cremation, we will provide a closed vehicle and necessary staff to transport the coffin directly to the crematorium.
- We will prepare and take care of the deceased until the day of the cremation (maximum 21 days).
- For the cremation, we will provide our Osborne coffin (a simple, light coloured coffin) and the deceased will be either dressed in their own clothes or a simple, dignified shroud. Additional charges for visiting our Chapel of Rest are detailed overleaf.
- At the crematorium, there will be no service held and no one is allowed into the chapel under any circumstances.
- You will be advised of the date that the ashes will be available for you to collect from our office (unless you have requested that they are scattered within the grounds of the crematorium).
- All necessary paperwork to allow the cremation to take place will need to be completed at our office ahead of the cremation at a date agreed by you and your funeral director.
- Payment for this service is required at the time of making the arrangements with your funeral director. The cremation will not take place until full payment has been made.

Unattended Direct Cremation fee - £1675

For the costs for any additional services beyond the scope of Our Unattended Direct Cremation Service, please see overleaf.

Our Attended Direct Cremation Service

What this includes

- We will make arrangements to collect the deceased and bring them into our care from within a 20 mile radius of our office during normal office hours of Monday - Friday, 9am-5pm. Should we be required to attend outside of these hours, there will be an out of hours fee applied.
- We will prepare and take care of the deceased until the day of the cremation (maximum 21 days).
- For the cremation, we will provide our Osborne coffin (a simple, light coloured coffin) and the deceased will be either dressed in their own clothes or a simple, dignified shroud. Additional charges for visiting our Chapel of Rest are detailed overleaf.
- The date and time of the cremation can be chosen by you from a selection of possible dates offered to you by your funeral director. Please be aware that the time of the cremation will be early morning at approximately 9am.
- On the day of the cremation, we will provide a closed vehicle and necessary staff to transport the coffin directly to Breckland Crematorium.
- At the crematorium, a small number of mourners (maximum of 10) will be permitted access to the chapel for a maximum of ten minutes to say a private farewell and listen to a song or piece of music of your choice.
- You will be advised of the date that the ashes will be available for you to collect from our office (unless you have requested that they are scattered within the grounds of the crematorium).
- All necessary paperwork to allow the cremation to take place will need to be completed at our office ahead of the cremation at a date agreed by you and your funeral director.
- Payment for this service is required at the time of making the arrangements with your funeral director. The cremation will not take place until full payment has been made.

Our Enhanced Direct Cremation Service

What this includes

- We will make arrangements to collect the deceased and bring them into our care from within a 20 mile radius of our office during normal office hours of Monday - Friday, 9am-5pm. Should we be required to attend outside of these hours, there will be an out of hours fee applied.
- We will prepare and take care of the deceased until the day of the cremation (maximum 21 days).
- For the cremation, we will provide our Osborne coffin (a simple, light coloured coffin) and the deceased will be either dressed in their own clothes or a simple, dignified shroud. Additional charges for visiting our Chapel of Rest are detailed overleaf.
- We will make all of the arrangements for the funeral service to take place at the Cedar Hall at the Norfolk Bluebell Wood, Hainford. The coffin will be present upon arrival at the hall and will remain in place at the end of the service. The cremation will take place after the funeral service. No one is permitted to attend the crematorium for this part of the service.
- We will give guidance to relatives or executors on the registration of the death and other matters relevant to the funeral.
- We will make all of the arrangements for the funeral, liaise with local clergy, celebrants, the relevant crematoria, caterers and florists and also provide the funeral director and required staff for the funeral service.
- We will receive flowers for the funeral and process charitable donations in memory of the deceased, both via our website and more traditional methods.
- All essential third party costs to allow the cremation and service to take place. These include venue hire, officiant fees and cremation fees. Additional third party fees may be applicable.
- Payment for this service is required at the time of making the arrangements with your funeral director. The service will not take place until full payment has been made.
