Words of Welcome

Jon Goodrum, Funeral Celebrant

Hymn

*All things bright and beautiful,
All creatures great and small,
All things wise and wonderful,
The Lord God made them all.*

Each little flower that opens,
Each little bird that sings,
He made their glowing colours,
He made their tiny wings.

The cold wind in the winter,
The pleasant summer sun,
The ripe fruits in the garden,
He made them every one;

He gave us eyes to see them,
And lips that we might tell
How great is God Almighty,
Who has made all things well.

'When I grow old I shall wear purple, with a red hat that doesn't go. I shall spend my money on wine, summer flowers, Amazon, Cotton Traders, meals out and Birkenstocks. I shall sit down on pavements when I am tired and wave to all I know and not care what others say, for when I am old I shall wear purple'
